Investing into your writing ministry

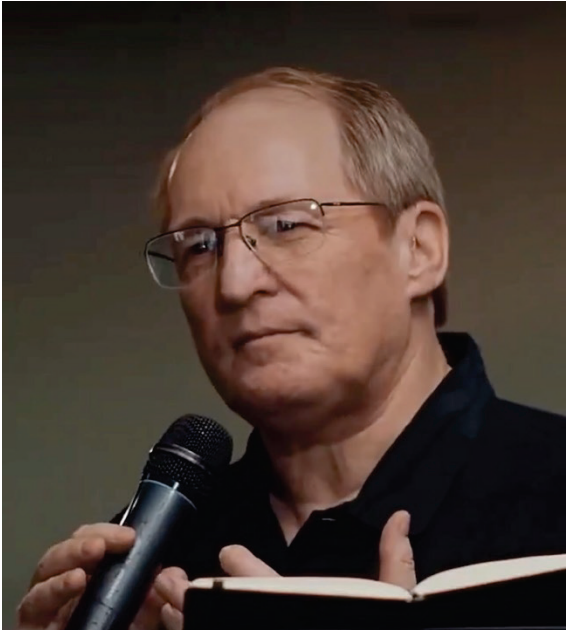

Writing a book can seem like a daunting task, but with the right tools and mindset, anyone can do it. Some key tips for successful book writing include staying focused on your goals, taking time to brainstorm and outline your ideas, and developing a supportive writing community. Additionally, presence driven prophetic writing is an effective approach that involves spending time in prayer and communion with God to tap into divine wisdom and inspiration. Once you've finished writing your book, the next step is to find a reliable publisher that can help bring your ideas to life. At Deeper Life Press, we specialize in guiding authors through every stage of the publishing process – from drafting to editing and distribution – so that you can focus on what's most important: sharing your message with the world! Whether you're looking to write an eBook or publish a full-length work, we have everything you need to succeed as an author. So why wait? Come meet other authors! Come join us for an inspiring hands-on workshop on how to write a book and fulfill your authorial dreams! We look forward to meeting you soon! Prayers of impartation will be made available to all those who have a heart for writing books.

Your new book is given to you by the Lord why not invest in learning more?

Teachers at the Conference

Teacher Penn Clark

www.wordsmith-py.com

God has given Penn a unique ability to communicate His grace in a way that is both profound and practical. From the very beginning, Penn has been a diligent steward of the revelations he has been given, writing them out, polishing them, and making them available to others. Now, with more than sixty books available from a lifetime of study, each book is an example of how to handle the Word of God with integrity. Through the years, the Lord has motivated Penn to present discipleship in a way that is both inspiring and accessible. The Clarks are based in the beautiful Finger Lakes region of New York, where they serve WellSpring Fellowship. To learn more about Penn, go to www.pennclark.net or www.pennclark.study.

Teacher: Steve Porter

www.deeperlifepress.com

Steve was blessed with the chance to start Deeper Life Press, all thanks to God's grace. As an experienced writer, Steve is the author of over 25 books, and he continues to write more! Deeper Life Press truly stands out from other publishing companies as Steve has the unique anointing to pull out the best in authors and help their books come to life. He has made publishing affordable and reachable! He has made long-lasting friends with authors around the globe through the years, as he calls his authors his dear friends. His work has extended his global reach through speaking engagements and contributions to publications like Elijah List, Identity Network, and Spirit Fuel. Steve has written and published many books and articles that have now been translated into several languages and have touched believers worldwide. His quarterly magazine, "The Deeper Life," is changing lives worldwide. Steve has mentored and assisted many authors in publishing their books and seeing their dreams come true!

Visit lovely Penn Yan, NY

Penn Yan is an idyllic village steeped in history, located at the north end of beautiful Keuka Lake. With its strong Amish and Mennonite heritage, you can find a cozy amish community bustling around the Oak Hill Bulk foods store. Established in 1983, this family-run store provides customers with all their basic grocery needs as well as some unique snacks and treats. Sample delicious cheddar cheese from New York state or Amish cheeses from Ohio – you won't be able to resist their bold flavors! What better way to experience this quaint place than visiting Penn Yan – home of hundreds of years' worth of culture and tradition. From the peaceful countryside views to the warm local hospitality, it will be sure to leave an imprint on your heart.

Diane and I shared a lot of fond memories together at the Finger Lakes. We cherished our moments spent floating around Canandaigua Lake, Seneca lake, Honeoye Lake, and Skaneateles Lake. But my favorite adventure was when we drove from Penn Yan to Hammondsport and followed the roads that circled Keuka Lake. The scenery was awe-inspiring with the sparkling sapphire blue waters, gentle rolling hills in the background, and charming rural towns nearby. Falling in love with Hammondsport's beauty was easy; it was truly a heartwarming sight.

As I take up the pen, I offer up my desires and talents to you, dear Lord Jesus. Give me the grace and anointing to write Your words from Your heart. Let me not rely on my own strength, but instead humble myself before You so that You can use me as a vessel through which to deliver a fresh batch of bread--words of life, love, and mercy--to those who are famished and hungry for it. May my words be fragrant like the petals of fresh flowers--filled with beauty and joy. May those that read find Your sweet presence in them.
